

SAGE UNIVERSITY INDORE

Students Welfare Cell

Objectives:

Students' Welfare Committee acts as an interface between the Institute's administration and the students to sort out matters concerning student welfare.

- To make sure that all welfare services are provided to students effectively.
- To make it easier for the university administration and the student body to communicate effectively and efficiently.
- To make sure a strong student leadership is established and maintained.
- To make it easier for all clubs and societies at the university to get started and run efficiently.
- To provide direction and counselling to students in general, and to specific pupils in particular, in all areas.
- To provide assistance and encourage students to participate in extracurricular activities like sports, drama, music, clubs, and society.
- Supporting the upkeep of standards and discipline among all pupils.
- To make recommendations about student welfare policy.
- To suggest improvements to the facilities available to students throughout their studies
